15. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because Plaintiffs allege violations of 15 U.S.C. §1125, et seq. (the Lanham Act).

16. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the Defendant is located in this judicial district.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

17. Each Plaintiff is a professional model and actress who earns a living by commercializing her identity, image, and likeness through negotiated, arms-length transactions with reputable commercial brands and companies.

18. A model's reputation directly impacts the commercial value associated with the use of her image, likeness, or identity to promote a product or service.

19. Each Plaintiff expended and continues to expend substantial efforts, resources, and time in building her reputation in the modeling industry.

20. Each Plaintiff carefully considers the reputation, brand, and type of good or service advertised by any potential client prior to authorizing the use of her image or likeness.

21. Each Plaintiff's career in modeling, acting, and/or private enterprise has substantial value derived from the goodwill and reputation each has built. Each Plaintiff commands substantial sums of money for the licensed commercial use of her image.

22. Defendant has brazenly and repeatedly, without consent, misappropriated Plaintiffs' images and likenesses and used them in its advertisements for its strip club.

23. The following are Defendant's unauthorized uses of Plaintiffs' images identified so far.

24. Defendant's use of Plaintiffs' images and likeness was for Defendant's commercial benefit and falsely suggests Plaintiffs' sponsorship, affiliation, and participation in Defendant's business.

25. Defendant never sought or obtained permission for any use of any of Plaintiffs' images.

26. None of the Plaintiffs has ever agreed, nor would they have agreed, to any use by Defendant of their images or likenesses to promote Defendant's business.

27. Defendant has never paid any of the Plaintiffs for its unauthorized use of their images or likenesses.

28. Plaintiffs, by FedEx on August 31, 2017, demanded that Defendant cease and desist use of their images and likenesses.

29. Defendant did not respond to Plaintiffs' cease and desist letter.

30. Defendant's unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' images and likenesses is knowing, willful, and intentional.

PLAINTIFFS' ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiffs re-state and re-allege paragraphs 1-30 above, and incorporate the same by reference as though fully set forth herein.

Plaintiff Alana Campos

32. Plaintiff Campos is a professional model.

33. In all prior instances of authorized commercial marketing and promotion of her image, likeness or identity by third parties, Plaintiff Campos negotiated and expressly granted authority for such use pursuant to agreed-upon terms and conditions and for agreed-upon compensation.

34. Defendant has never hired or contracted with Plaintiff Campos to advertise, promote, market or endorse Defendant's business.

35. In the image used by the Defendant to promote its business and advertise upcoming events, Plaintiff is readily identifiable in that any person seeing the photograph with the naked eye can reasonably determine that the person depicted is Plaintiff Campos.

36. Defendant's appropriation of the image of Plaintiff Campos was for the purpose of advertising or soliciting patronage of the Defendant's establishment.

37. Defendant has never sought Plaintiff Campos' permission, nor did Plaintiff give Defendant permission to use the image to advertise and promote its club.

38. Defendant has never compensated Plaintiff for any use of her likeness or image.

39. Defendant had actual knowledge it was using Plaintiff Campos's image without compensation or consent. Accordingly, Defendant knowingly misappropriated Plaintiff Campos' image and identity in total disregard of Plaintiff's rights.

40. Defendant derived a direct commercial benefit from its unauthorized use of Plaintiff Campos' image and likeness.

41. Defendant derived a direct commercial benefit from its unauthorized use of Plaintiff Campos' image and likeness.

42. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unauthorized use of Plaintiff Campos' image and likeness, Defendant made profits or gross revenues in an amount to be established at trial.

43. Plaintiff Campos has further been damaged as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unauthorized use, as she has lost her exclusive right to control the commercial exploitation of her name, photographs, and likeness, resulting in damages, the total amount of which will be established by proof at trial.

Plaintiff Jennifer Zharinova

44. Plaintiff Zharinova is a professional model.

45. In all prior instances of authorized commercial marketing and promotion of her image, likeness or identity by third parties, Plaintiff Zharinova negotiated and expressly granted authority for such use pursuant to agreed-upon terms and conditions and for agreed-upon compensation.

46. Defendant has never hired or contracted with Plaintiff Zharinova to advertise, promote, market or endorse Defendant's business.

COUNT I

Misappropriation of Likeness

128. Plaintiffs re-state and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 127 above, and incorporate the same by reference as though fully set forth herein.

129. Plaintiffs have a right to control the commercial use of their names, images, and likenesses. Under New Jersey law, the unauthorized use of a person's image or likeness for a predominately commercial purpose is unlawful.

130. Defendant's use of Plaintiffs' images and likenesses to advertise its strip club business constitutes a use for commercial purposes.

131. Defendant's use of Plaintiffs' photographs and likenesses did not occur in connection with the dissemination of news or information and was without a redeeming public interest or historical value.

132. Defendant never obtained Plaintiffs' consent for the use of their images and likenesses.

133. Defendant's use of each Plaintiffs' photographs and likenesses was willful and deliberate.

134. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's scheme to create the false impression that Plaintiffs were affiliated with and/or performed at Defendant's strip club, Defendant enjoyed increased revenues and profits.

135. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendant's deliberate and willful conduct, Plaintiffs have suffered actual damages in an amount to be established at trial.

COUNT II

Unfair Competition / False Endorsement

Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a)

136. Plaintiffs re-state and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 135 above, and incorporate the same by reference as though fully set forth herein.

137. Plaintiffs, through their careers in modeling, advertising, and acting, have all attained significant fame and celebrity.

138. Each Plaintiff enjoys a substantial social media following and has appeared in publications, television, and movies as described above.

139. Each Plaintiff earns her living by commercializing her identity for use by reputable brands and services through arms-length negotiated transactions.

140. Each Plaintiff possesses a valid and protectable mark in the form of her persona, image, likeness, and identity.

141. Each Plaintiff has, and at all times mentioned herein, possessed, maintained, and safeguarded her exclusive right to control the use of her persona, image, likeness, and identity.

142. Prior to authorizing the use of her image, likeness, or identity, each Plaintiff carefully considers the reputation of the potential client and the good or service being promoted.

143. Without consent, Defendant placed Plaintiffs' images and likeness on advertisements promoting its strip club business.

144. In Defendant's advertisements that contain Plaintiffs' images and likenesses, Plaintiffs are clearly depicted and readily identifiable.

145. Plaintiffs and the Defendant are all in the entertainment industry and use similar marketing channels, including social media.

146. Defendant misappropriated Plaintiffs' images and likenesses in order to create the false impression that Plaintiffs are somehow affiliated with, have endorsed, or otherwise participate in Defendant's strip club business.

147. Defendant never sought any Plaintiffs' consent to use her image or likeness.

148. Plaintiffs never participated in, affiliated with, or endorsed Defendant's strip club business.

149. Plaintiffs would not agree to allow their image or likeness to be used to promote Defendant's strip club business.

150. Defendant, at all times mentioned herein, knew that it had no right to use Plaintiffs' images or likenesses to promote its strip club business.

151. Plaintiffs, through their careers in modelling and acting, are well known among the customer base Defendant sought to reach with its advertisements.

152. Indeed, Defendant chose Plaintiffs precisely because of their level of recognition among the demographic of consumers Defendant targets with its advertisements.

153. Defendant clearly intended to create the false impression that Plaintiffs performed at or otherwise endorsed Defendant's business.

154. Defendant placed the misappropriated images on the very same marketing channels (i.e. Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter) used by Plaintiffs to promote themselves.

155. Defendant's misappropriation of Plaintiffs' images is likely to cause confusion as to Plaintiffs' affiliation with, sponsorship of, and/or participation in Defendant's strip club business.

156. Upon information and belief, Defendant's misappropriation has caused actual confusion among consumers as to Plaintiffs' affiliation with, endorsement of, and participation in Defendant's strip club business.

157. Defendant knew or should have known that, given Plaintiffs' careers as professional models, obtaining the right to use their images and likenesses would have required consent and compensation.

158. Defendant's repeated and brazen unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' images and likenesses, without seeking their consent, constitutes willful and deliberate conduct.

159. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's scheme to create the false impression that Plaintiffs were affiliated with and/or performed at Defendant's strip club, Defendant enjoyed increased revenues and profits.

160. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendant's deliberate and willful conduct, Plaintiffs have suffered actual damages in an amount to be established at trial.

COUNT III

Unfair Competition / False Endorsement

N.J.S.A. 56:4-1, et seq.

161. Plaintiffs re-state and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 160 above, and incorporate the same by reference as though fully set forth herein.

162. The aforesaid acts of Defendant's unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' images and likenesses in connection with creating the false impression that they were affiliated with and endorsed Defendant's business constitutes unfair competition under N.J.S.A. 56:4-1.

163. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's scheme to create the false impression that Plaintiffs were affiliated with and/or performed at Defendant's strip club, Defendant enjoyed increased revenues and profits.

164. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendant's deliberate and willful conduct, Plaintiffs have suffered actual damages in an amount to be established at trial.

165. Defendant's wrongful and deliberate conduct has caused significant damage to Plaintiffs, both directly and indirectly, and Plaintiffs respectfully request treble damages as authorized by N.J.S.A. 56:4-2.

COUNT IV

Common Law Unfair Competition

166. Plaintiffs re-state and re-allege paragraphs 1 through 165 above, and incorporate the same by reference as though fully set forth herein.

167. The aforesaid acts of Defendant's unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' images and likenesses in connection with creating the false impression that they were affiliated with and endorsed Defendant's business constitutes unfair competition under the common law of New Jersey.

168. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's scheme to create the false impression that Plaintiffs were affiliated with and/or performed at Defendant's strip club, Defendant enjoyed increased revenues and profits.

169. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendant's deliberate and willful conduct, Plaintiffs have suffered actual damages in an amount to be established at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully pray for judgment against Defendant as follows:

1. For actual, consequential, and incidental damages in an amount to be proven at trial;
2. For the amount due, owing and unpaid to Plaintiffs representing the fair market value of their services;
3. For trebling of damages;
4. For punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial;

5. For prejudgment interest in an amount proscribed by law;
6. For disgorgement of Defendant's profits;
7. For costs of this lawsuit including reasonable attorney's fees; and
8. For such other and further relief as to this court seem just, proper and equitable.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury as to all issues in the above matter.

Date: September 29, 2017
